REFUND POLICY FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

In signing this application you are automatically bound by the conditions of TMSS and/or TMSS cancellations and refund policy.

This refund and cancellation policy applies to both commencing and continuing students. Under this policy, TMSS may cancel the student's enrolment if:

- Where a student has been accepted into a package course, no refund will be granted for the second course after commencement date of the first course.
- Tuition fees will be refunded in full if the applicant is unable to obtain visa from DIBP before their first entry to Australia and the applicant provides visa rejection letter to TMSS. This does not include where a student visa renewal is rejected or a student visa has been cancelled because of a breach of visa conditions. Apply refund policy.
- If a student withdraws from a course before 28 days prior to the course start date, 80% of the semester tuition fee will be refunded and 100% Material fee will be refundable. OSHC (If arranged by TMSS) is refundable as per the health cover provider policies. The administration fee (currently $250) and enrolment fee (currently $200) will not be refunded.
- If a student withdraws from a course before 14 days before the course start date 50% of the semester tuition fee will be refunded and 100% Material fee will be refundable. OSHC (If arranged by TMSS) is refundable as per the health cover provider policies. The administration fee (currently $250) and enrolment fee (currently $200) will not be refunded.
- If withdrawal request is received after 14 days prior to the course commencement date the prepaid tuition fee is non-refundable. The material fee is non-refundable. Where a student has enrolled in a package constituting more than one course, $1000 will be deducted for each following course in the package as a cancellation charge.
- If the student withdraws from the course after it has commenced, no refund on any tuition fees will be made to students.
- If a student is terminated due to serious breach of TMSS rules or breach of visa conditions including unsatisfactory course progress, there is no refund.
- TMSS is not liable to refund any amount paid to your agent as commission from your tuition fees.
- In the unlikely event that TMSS is unable to deliver the course for which an offer has been made; students can transfer to another TMSS course or receive 100% refund on tuition fees. If TMSS is unable to run the course due to the provider defaulting, student's tuition fees are protected under the ESOS Act 2000 and the ESOS Regulations 2001.
- The student failed to pay an amount he or she was liable to pay TMSS directly or indirectly, in order to undertake the course; and/or
- The student failed continually to maintain the required attendance the course progress even after TMSS'S intervened the situation through its intervention policy; and/or
- The student breached a condition of his or her visa; and/or
- The student engaged in a serious misbehaviour TMSS will refund to the student whose enrolment has been cancelled. The following TMSS refund terms and conditions apply. TMSS cancellation and refund policy can be found at: <http://www.mssedu.com.au>
- All requests must be submitted in writing on the appropriate form to the managing director of the college and must be accompanied by official documentary evidence on the grounds for the request. Enrolment fees, accommodation placement fees and airport pickup charges are non-refundable under any circumstances.
- Refund applies only to the course fees and will be paid to the student in Australian Dollars only. AUD $250 administration fee applies upon refund application.
- Where a student has been accepted into a package course, no refund will be granted for the second course after commencement date of the first course.
- All approved refunds will be provided within 28 days in accordance with ESOS Act 2000.
- In the event that a student cancels his/her enrolment at TMSS and requests after the course has commenced, no refund will be made to the students.
- False or misleading information in the application forms or during the course of study automatically disqualifies the student from any refunds.
- There above conditions do not remove the right to complain and appeal through the college's Complaints and Appeals Processes and also take further action under Australia's Consumer Protection laws.
- TMSS's dispute resolution processes do not circumscribe the students' right to pursue other legal remedies.
