Testimonial

Doing the Advanced Diploma of Business with TMSS was a great experience for me. It's given me skills in finance, leadership, marketing and many other fields with the knowledge that I can work at a high level in business. The teacher and staff were always very friendly and happy to listen to me whenever I had any questions. One time I was sick and had to miss some classes, but they helped me catch up. It was a very enjoyable experience, and I would recommend it to anyone.

Mode of Study:

All courses offered by The Management School Sydney are delivered on campus full time with face to face classes for 15 hours per week integrated with self-directed learning for 5 hours per week during term time to meet the requirements for international students to study full time load of 20 hours per week.

Delivery Methods:

Face to face classes include lectures, group activities, role plays/practical demonstrations and class presentations. The program is designed to allow for the adoption of a range of learning approaches to cater for differences in learning styles, learning interests and needs, and variations in learning opportunities. Students must attend all scheduled classes and they are expected to undertake reading, research and project work in their own time.

Assessment Methods:

Assessments of each unit will be conducted by:

- formative assessment (in class activities and practical exercises) (to some extent as the nature of classroom learning differs from a workplace)
 - summative assessment (final assessment to demonstrate knowledge and skills of the entire unit of competency)
- A variety of methods will be utilised to assess the student's competency in this unit of competency. These include:

- Written activities (A)
- Structured activities (B)
- Projects (C)
- Observation/demonstration (D)
- Learner Workbook Activities (E)
- Observation/Demonstration (F)
- Major Activity (G)
- Skills and Knowledge Activity (H)
- Third Party (I)
- Case Study (J)
- Other Evidence Documents (K)

Students will be given an opportunity to practice or discuss activities prior to undertaking formative or summative assessments observed by the trainer/assessor who will give the student feedback.

Students will receive course materials that are downloadable from the college learning management system in soft copy. These materials will include a learning guide and a range of assessments. The college also has a small library of printed books that are accessible by borrowing or reading at the library. Students will need to have access to a document processing software, such as Microsoft Office, and a computer or laptop or access to these. The college does provide computers and software at no cost to students, but these are accessible during college hours only.

Students may join the City of Sydney Library Service through the online website access at <https://library.cityofsydney.nsw.gov.au/Montage/Join.aspx>
The City of Sydney Library Services branches are located at the following:

- Customs House Library

 - Notify the City of Sydney Library Service of any changes to contact details provided
 - Students can find further information by visiting the City of Sydney Library Service website at <http://www.cityofsydney.nsw.gov.au/library/Default.asp>

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

BEFORE YOU ENROL

ORIENTATION

An orientation session for new students is held shortly before the course commencement date, and attendance is compulsory. In the one-hour session, students are given all the information they need to know about studying at TMSS, including their class times, term dates, how to progress successfully through their course, contact details of TMSS staff and services relating to health, accommodation, the law, emergencies and, other important areas.

ACCOMMODATION ASSISTANCE

One of the first things you will need to do is organise where you will stay in Australia. There are several services that can help students find accommodation. They include Homestay, Cozzystay, XBase Sydney and Iglu. Their contact details can be found in the TMSS student handbook.

ISSUING A QUALIFICATION

After their successful completion of all units of the course within the specified time, students will be issued with a nationally recognised qualification. If some but not all units are passed, students will be issued with a Statement of Attainment.

COURSE PROGRESS AND ASSESSMENTS

TMSS is required by law to monitor the progress of students through out their course. Students must successfully complete their assessments to enable them to pass the units and the course. A variety of assessment methods may be used, including short answer questions, projects, group work, observations, and others. TMSS has a dedicated support team who can give students all the help they might need if they are falling behind. If a student fails to maintain satisfactory course progress, TMSS may be required to report them to the Department of Home Affairs, which may result in the cancellation of their student visa. Students are able to appeal this or any other decision made by TMSS, or make a formal complaint about any issue of concern to them. The TMSS web site has details of the TMSS complaints and appeals policy and procedures.

CREDIT TRANSFER

Students can apply for credit for course units on the basis of previous studies. Applications should be made within two weeks of the course commencement date, and students will be notified of the outcome within 28 working days from the date of the application.

APPLYING FOR A STUDENT VISA

International students must obtain a student visa from the Australian embassy in their country. Students who are in Australia can either apply or extend their student visa in Australia. To be granted a student visa, the applicant must have:

- a letter from TMSS accepting the application to study
- a Confirmation of Enrolment after the applicable fees have been paid
- a health check-up, as required by Australian law
- proof of financial support
- a Genuine Temporary Entrant statement

Further help with student visa applications may be obtained from either an Educational Agent registered with TMSS or from the Department of Home Affairs, website <http://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/trav/stud>.

PRIVACY POLICY

TMSS is bound by information privacy principles and its obligations under the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988. See the TMSS web site or student handbook for details of the TMSS privacy policy.

ESOS FRAMEWORK

The ESOS Framework, which includes the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) Act 2000 and the National Code 2018, promotes quality education and consumer protection for overseas students. More information about the ESOS Framework can be obtained from the web site internationaleducation.gov.au

Student Support Services:

A student must maintain satisfactory course progress to retain his or her student visa. TMSS offers academic support to students who may be falling behind, or students who may be having trouble with any academic aspect of their course, in one or more of the following ways:

1. Counselling
 2. Attending extra tutorials
 3. Attending one on one sessions with a lecturer or tutor
 4. Attending additional group classes
 5. Attending language support sessions
 6. Agreeing to specific Study Plan
 7. Agreeing to specific study achievement milestones
 8. Other academic measures as deemed necessary by the college
- A copy of the TMSS Maintain Course Progress and Intervention Policy and Procedure will be given to you at orientation, and the process will be fully explained.

As well as the academic support described in the previous section, TMSS offers support in the following areas at no cost to the student:

- Enrolment and registration
- Fees and refunds
- Unique Student Identifies (USI)
- Credit transfer application
- OSHC enquiries
- Access to student portal
- Update contact details
- Attendance
- English language support
- Deferring / changing course
- CoE extension
- Student withdrawal/refund
- Student appeal
- Support through psychological difficulties or crises

More information on these forms of support can be obtained from the Student Administrator.

Deferral, Suspension and/or Cancellation of Enrolment

International students may apply to defer their studies if they are unable to commence their course on the scheduled commencement date or for voluntary suspension of their studies if they are unable to commence or attend the course for a specified period of time under compassionate or compelling circumstances. Compassionate or compelling circumstances include situations beyond the student's control and which are likely to have an impact upon the student's course progress or well-being and includes but is not limited to the following:

- Serious illness or injury, where a medical certificate states that the student will be unable to attend classes;
- Death or illness of close family member such as parents, or grandparents (where possible a doctor's or death certificate) The college will also recognise the death of siblings, children, spouses, uncles and aunts but requests documentary proof of both the death and relationship

- A major political upheaval or natural disaster in home country requiring emergency travel
- A critical incident
- A traumatic experience (supported by police or psychologists reports) such as:
- Involvement in or witnessing a serious accident
- Witnessing or being the victim of a serious crime
- Delays in gaining a student visa

If a student defers or suspends their studies for any other ground not stated above, the student must provide compelling documentary evidence to support their request. Students must contact the Department of Home Affairs regarding the effect of any deferment or suspension of studies may have on their student visa prior to formally lodging an application to defer or voluntarily suspend their studies. The maximum time allowed for a deferment or voluntary suspension of study is one term (9 weeks not including holidays)

Personal & Contact Details

The Management School Sydney collects personal information from students for the purpose of training and assessment only and is required to report personal information to relevant Government Authorities without the express permission of the student. In all other cases, the requirements of the Privacy Act 1988 are adhered to.

Unique Student Identifier

The Management School Sydney students are not permitted to commence training and assessment until they have provided The Management School Sydney with their Unique Student Identifier. In cases where there the student experiences difficulty obtaining a student identifier, The Management School Sydney will allow training and assessment to commence and follow the procedure for ascertaining a correct student identifier from The Registrar.

Schooling Obligations

In cases where a student has school aged dependants, there are schooling obligations for their school aged dependents to study with either a government or non-government school which will incur school fees.

Tuition Protection Service (TPS)

The Tuition Protection Service (TPS) is an initiative of the Australian Government to assist international students whose education providers are unable to fully deliver their course of study. The TPS ensures that international students are able to either:

- complete their studies in another course or with another education provider or
- receive a refund of their unspent tuition fees

In the unlikely event The Management School Sydney is unable to deliver a course where fees have been paid in advance and it does not meet its obligations to either offer the student an alternative course that is accepted or pay the student a refund of the unspent prepaid tuition fees, the TPS will assist the student in finding an alternative course or offer a refund if a suitable alternative is not found.

Complaints Handling

Students are entitled to have a personal representative present at any stage during the complaints handling procedure. If the student's problem cannot be resolved by The Management School Sydney published complaints handling process, students can seek external assistance for appeal.

External options available to students include

- ASQA (<http://www.asqa.gov.au/complaints/making-a-complaint.html>)
- Department of Fair Trading (<http://www.fairtrading.nsw.gov.au>)
- Administrative Appeals Tribunal (<http://www.aat.gov.au>)
- Overseas Students Ombudsman (<http://www.oso.gov.au/making-a-complaint>)
- NSW Ombudsman (www.ombo.nsw.gov.au/contact-us)

Consumer Rights

This written agreement, and the right to make complaints and seek appeals of decisions and action under various processes, does not affect the rights of the student to take action under Australian Consumer Law if the Australian Consumer Law applies.

Termination:

The Management School Sydney reserves the right to terminate students for any serious breaches including but not limited to:

- academic misconduct
- non-academic misconduct
- failure to achieve satisfactory academic progress as per intervention strategy

Student Rights

In the unlikely event The Management School Sydney ceases to operate as a Registered Training Organisation, students will be assisted to transfer to another Registered Training Organisation that offers the same qualification. In the event The Management School Sydney is not able to provide an agreed services that results in arrangement being terminated early, students will be refunded the appropriate amount of fees paid upon agreement of training and assessment services provided. The Management School Sydney will notify students of any changes to the agreed services as soon as possible or within 14 days.

APPLICATION PROCESS

1. FIND A COURSE

You can choose from a variety of vocational courses including BSB40215 Certificate IV in Business, BSB50215 Diploma of Business, and BSB60215 Advanced Diploma of Business. Visit the courses page for further information.

2. CHECK THE ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

All applicants can study at The Management School Sydney (TMSS) in the year in which they turn 18 years of age. Applicants are required to have a certain minimum level of English. Please check the English language requirements for BSB40215 Certificate IV in Business, BSB50215 Diploma of Business, and BSB60215 Advanced Diploma of Business, on the courses page. Make sure that you meet the entry requirements for your chosen course at TMSS before you proceed to the next step in the application process. Students should also be aware that there are deadlines for accepting an offer and making the fee payment. CoEs will not be issued after the cut-off date. This is to ensure that students have a reasonable time to get their visa and arrive in time for orientation and the start of classes.

3. SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION

You can apply to study at The Management School Sydney by completing your application online, or by downloading the TMSS Application Form and following the processes described below:

Apply using an education agent:

You can apply through a TMSS approved education agent. You pay the same fees whether you apply directly to us or through one of our agents. Many students choose to apply directly, as the website has all the information they need. Other students choose to use an agent to assist them in preparing and submitting their applications. You can find an approved TMSS agent using our Agent List.

Receive your Letter of Offer:

Once we have received your application, we will assess your eligibility to study your selected course(s). If eligible and there are places available we will send you a Letter of Offer. This letter will be sent to you directly or through the agent you have nominated according to your instructions on the application form. If we have not received all of the required supporting documentation from you, then your Letter of Offer will have conditions listed noting the information you still need to provide. Please note that your place is subject to availability at the time of acceptance and payment. You must allow sufficient time before your program starts to obtain your visa and make arrangements to come to Sydney in Australia. The application process may take up to three (3) months.

4. ACCEPT YOUR OFFER AND PAY

To accept your Offer, you must return your signed Acceptance Letter with:

- Supporting documentation that you were requested to supply, in your Letter of Offer (i.e. conditions)
- Payment of your schedule of fees, as indicated in your Letter of Offer

5. APPLY FOR YOUR STUDENT VISA

Subject to the availability of places after you have signed and returned the Letter of Acceptance, made full payment and meet the (if any) conditions, we will provide you with a Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) which you will need in order to apply for a student visa at the Australian High Commission or Embassy in your country. You must have a student visa in order to enter Australia and commence your studies. From 1.7.2016 there is a new student visa system called SSVF (Simplified Student Visa Framework). Detailed information about the processing of student visas is available via the website of the Department of Home Affairs , website <http://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/trav/stud>. If you need help obtaining your visa and other aspects of moving to Australia, which might be best provided in your own country or language, then you might like to use the services of a TMSS approved agent.

• TMSS IS USING EDUCATION AGENTS

Students who require help with applying for a student visa can use educational agents accredited with TMSS. A list of our current agent network is available from our website and if you're interested in becoming an agent endorsed by TMSS, forms are also available: <http://www.tmss.edu.au/content/agent-section>. For details, contact our marketing department at: marketing@tmss.edu.au

6. RECEIVE YOUR VISA AND START YOUR STUDY IN AU

When your student visa has been granted, you are ready to come to Sydney, Australia, to begin your course. You must arrive in Australia prior to the commencement of your course or your enrolment may be deferred to the next available intake and you may have to return home.

ABOUT AUSTRALIA

ABOUT SYDNEY

WORKING IN AUSTRALIA

International students must comply with the work requirements of the student visa. You are permitted to work for up to 40 hours per fortnight (2 weeks) during study terms, providing that the work does not interfere with your studies. During term breaks you may work full-time. More information can be found at <http://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/trav/visa-1/500->

STUDENT HEALTH COVER

All international students are required by law to have Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for the entire duration of their student visa. OSHC will cover the cost of certain medical situations. Many of the main health insurance companies also provide OSHC, and offer different levels of cover for different fees. TMSS can give you advice about OSHC.

ABOUT SYDNEY

With its high standard of living and reputation for educational excellence, Sydney is one of the safest and most desirable cities in the world in which to study. Sydney is blessed with a beautiful natural environment, with its famous harbour, attractive beaches not very far from the city, extensive national parks and protected bushland areas. Sydney also has a superbly built environment, with its famous Opera House, the Sydney Harbour Bridge, the Queen Victoria Building, and many more heritage areas. For those of you interested in culture, music, entertainment, shopping, sport or eating out, we can definitely help you there! As one of the most multicultural cities in the world, Sydney offers a rich variety of experiences for the visitor.

COST OF LIVING

The costs for an individual student living in Sydney will be approximately AUD$20,290 per year. (This cost does not include tuition fees). The average International student in Australia spends about $390 per week on:

- Accommodation, electricity and gas
- Food and clothing
- Transport
- Telephone and internet
- Entertainment and incidental costs

For an up-to-date estimate of living costs please refer to <http://www.studyinaustralia.gov.au/global/live-in-australia/living-costs>

While this is a realistic guide, it is important to remember that individual circumstances will vary by location, course and lifestyle.

OUR CAMPUS

The TMSS campus is located only a few minutes from either Central or Museum train stations, and from the Central Business District with its many shops, restaurants, cinemas and other attractions. There are also many buses which stop nearby. The TMSS campus is beautifully clean and well-lighted, and offers a modern, spacious and comfortable space in which to study. Our teachers are specially chosen for their willingness to put the individual student first in everything they do, and they strive to make the classes engaging and enjoyable. With a kitchen, student common room, computer room, library, wifi and spacious classrooms, the TMSS campus is an ideal educational space.

Transport

Sydney has a modern, convenient transport system including trains, buses and ferries. Students will find that no matter which suburb they live in, there is a direct form of public transport that goes directly to and from the city. Students using public transport will need to purchase an Opal Card. Further information is available online at www.opal.com.au

Weather

Sydney's weather is moderate throughout the year with mild winters and moderate summers, making it an attractive destination for students from all around the world.

Recreation

Sydney has a world class harbour with exciting facilities and activities to do such as the Harbour Bridge, Sydney Harbour, the Opera House, Darling Harbour, Aquariums, Museums and beautiful beaches are just some of the many beautiful places in Sydney. You can enjoy free entertainment that includes Sydney's famous fireworks on the harbour and the Vivid light spectacular.
